

FABIOLA M. VIGIL MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Presented by

The Vigil Family Foundation (VFF) presents the Fabiola M. Vigil Memorial Scholarship. Fabiola was a devoted educator within the Española Public School district for many years and grandmother to VFF founder, Fernando Vigil. Her passion and devotion for furthering education was instilled in her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren as she has raised Engineers, Doctors, Nurses, Educators, Accountants, and Technicians, all who are graduates from the Española Valley. Fabiola always stressed the endless possibilities you had by continuing your education and how you can impact the world. The Fabiola Vigil Memorial Scholarship Fund has been established to provide scholarships to deserving young men and women who intend to enter a higher education field pertaining or specific to sustainable and renewable energies, engineering, or math & sciences.

There will be three one-time scholarships awarded for the Class of 2022. First award worth $6,000.00, second award worth $4,000.00, and third award worth $2,000.00. Scholarships will be made directly to the institution of your attendance to assist with costs for furthering your education. Applicants will be notified by email upon being awarded the scholarship. Applications must be submitted by May 15th, 2022 to be considered.

To be considered for this scholarship, the applicant must meet the following requirements:
